Marbella, Spain (PRWEB) July 23, 2004 -- Pinsapo Realty, international real estate agents, provide properties for sale in Spain, Croatia, Bulgaria, Dubai, Russia, South Africa and the USA, giving investors the opportunity to broaden their international property portfolios.

Pinsapo Realty was founded to address the demand for a company that spans global barriers of language and culture to offer you the best there is of international real estate. Based in Southern Spain, with associate offices in a number of countries including South Africa, Bulgaria, Croatia, Dubai (UAE), Russia, Ukraine, USA and England, we are certain to find your dream property, no matter where it might be!

Through these associate offices, we are able to offer you the very latest developments and re-sale properties, making your investment choices easier. There is no need to carry the expense of traveling to each international real estate hotspot, as our website www.pinsaporealty.com can guide you through the buying process of each country, while showing you a selection of properties that are available, as well as the latest news concerning international property markets.

Should you not find an exact match when you search our site, please send us a detailed enquiry of what you seek so that we may search our various international real estate databases in greater depth to find you that dream home.

Pinsapo Realty takes its name from the Abies Pinsapo pine tree, which occurs only in the provinces of Málaga and Cádiz, Andalucía, Spain.

Like this unique tree, Pinsapo Realty offers a new and unique property service in Spain.

Situated with our main office in Marbella, Málaga, Spain, our position provides us with a unique opportunity of being able to act as a co-ordination and sales center for international real estate between countries such as Croatia, Bulgaria, Dubai, Russia, South Africa, Spain and the USA. With associate offices in all of the regions mentioned, we are able to promote re-sale and new development properties no matter where they might be.

Should it be an apartment, a villa, a holiday home or investment project you are looking for, Pinsapo Realty is able to offer advice and a wide choice of options, securing your investment for your peace of mind.
